COMING UP

October 21

AI Product Management Bootcamp, Dinner, and Career Fair at the Hinckley Center, led by Scott Murff, our founding faculty director.

This fall

We are formalizing the advisory board. Scott meets each advisor one-on-one first.

Winter 2027

The same students keep building for clients, and a multi-school AI case competition, approved by the MBA director, is in planning.

THE ADVISORY BOARD

14 advisory board members, ranging from Anthropic and Pelion Venture Partners to BCG X.

WAYS WE'D LOVE YOUR HELP

Case competition sponsors and judges

Sponsor or judge the multi-school AI product case competition this winter, and bring a real problem for the teams to solve.

A founding partner

One partner to anchor the Foundry as it grows, recognized as a founder of the program.

Projects for students

A real problem at your company that a student team can build for.

Recruiting pipelines

A standing path from top companies' internships and product roles to our students.

Curriculum builders

Guest speakers, teachers and mentors, and practitioners willing to help shape what we teach.

Introductions to top tech PMs

Product leaders at leading tech companies our students should learn from and know.
